Dear Sir,

We regret to inform you that the Bill of Lading relating to the number of Packages or Pieces mentioned below, of which we claim to be the rightful [Delete whichever in-applicable, (Owner/Agent)] (the "B/L") has been lost or have not yet reached us, and in consequence we request you to release the said number of Packages or Pieces to M/s. _____ without requiring the surrender of the B/L and in consideration thereof, we hereby unconditionally undertake to indemnify you, the Ship, its Owners and/or Agents against and hold you harmless from any harm whatsoever and howsoever arising directly or indirectly as a result of your release of the Packages and/or Pieces without the production and surrender of the B/L and we further undertake and agree that the mis-description, inaccuracy or incorrectness (whether fraudulent or otherwise) of any statement relating to the contents, quality, quantity, weight, numbers, marks and/or value of the Packages and/or Pieces inserted hereunder shall not limit nor affect in any way whatsoever our liability or that of our Bankers hereunder:

It is our intention that the foregoing indemnity includes all reasonable legal costs whether or not a writ has been issued, so as to cover all the expenses of any requisite legal consultations and any instructions to your legal advisers that may in your sole discretion be necessary.

Our objective in granting you this complete indemnity is of course that the concession you are making us, by releasing the below- mentioned number of Packages and/or Pieces without the production and surrender of the B/L, shall not place you in any worse position than would be the case if you had released them in the recognized and required manner against the B/L.
