UBL and DOW University Sign Agreement for Cash Collection Services

Mr. Arif Sirhindi, Group Executive United Bank Ltd. (UBL) (4th left front) and Mr. Muhammad Sarfaraz, Financial Adviser to the VC DOW University of Health & Sciences (DUHS) (3rd left front) and their respective teams at a ceremony commemorating the signing of Cash Pick-up Services between UBL and DUHS.

United Bank Limited (UBL) signed an Agreement with the DOW University of Health & Sciences (DUHS) at a ceremony recently held in Karachi. Mr. Arif Sirhindi, Group Executive UBL and Mr. Muhammad Sarfaraz, Financial Adviser to the VC, DUHS were present at the ceremony. Senior officials from both organizations were also in attendance at the occasion.

Through this agreement, UBL will provide cash pick-up services from DOW Laboratories across Sindh even after Banking hours. The collection facility is being performed at 32 DUHS Laboratories.

While speaking at the occasion, Mr. Arif Sirhindi said “DUHS has been a premier medical institution in Pakistan for the past many years and has been providing professional medical services through its laboratories at economical rates. This collaboration with UBL, a bank which is leading the way in providing innovative financial solutions in Pakistan, will provide DUHS a secure cash management service at DUHS Laboratories.”

Mr. Muhammad Sarfaraz added “The primary objective of DUHS was to secure cash at DUHS Labs after banking hours. UBL’s hallmark of being customer centric and being a market leader in being open to ideas is proved yet again. We are hopeful that with the signing of this Agreement with UBL, we will be able to further cement our close ties towards new ventures.”
